In a recent issue of the National Adver-iser it is stated that J. B. Hughes and

V. C. Heath, representing, it is said, the American Tobacco Company, are in Louis ville, Ky., trying to effect the organiza tion of a combination of plug tobaccomanufacturers. It is claimed that they have secured options on the plants and brands of the Harry Wiessinger Tobacco Company and the John Finser Brothers Company, of that city. They say they also have options on the Mayo factory, of Richmond, and a number of others. Mr. P. H. Mayo, the head of the factory in this city which bears his name was seen with reference to this publica-tion. He stated that various propositions had from time to time been made to his company by several persons. What might eventually result he was unable to pre-dict, but he said the Mayo company had not up to this time entered into any agreement whatever with any other cor-

A Lively Engagement.

There was a lively engagement at Twen-ty-seventh and Grace streets yesterday morning, the combatants being a woman a baby carriage, and a man on one side, and a jealous woman on the other. All parties were colored, except the baby carriage, which was of light straw. The fight lasted about five minutes, the man was dismantfed, both women scalped in a small way, and peace again took posses-sion of the quiet neighborhood. No arrests have been made.

OTHER ITEMS ON THE SOUTH SIDE.

Death of Little Marian Beattle Sun nally and Mr. Elke-Captain Lam at Central Church.

The Fourth of July, the natal-day of the nation, was very generally observed in Richmond's sister city.

As is nearly always the case, most of the people left the city for the suburban resorts, or to spend the day at the seaside. The dry-goods stores were closed 10 o'clock. By noon the streets were deserted. The tourist wagon, filled with young ladies and gentlemen, and now and then a chaperon, was early on the streets; roomy delivery wagons were also brought into service to carry family parties away Park, were liberally patronized by family groups, while the young men went to the base-ball in Richmond.
